Frauds and Scams Targeting Seniors

Sponsored by Dayton Police Department and Miami Valley Crime Stoppers

Seniors can make easy targets for fraud, whether it's for unbelievable investment returns, or fraudulent sweepstakes prizes. Fraud on seniors can happen by phone, mail, in person, or on the internet. It can happen to wealthy seniors and those of limited means. Studies show con artists are more likely to target senior citizens than any other age groups, because they believe seniors are more susceptible to the scams.

If you are a senior looking to protect yourself from scams and fraud, or you know someone that may be at risk now or in the future, this class can provide important information that will help limit their risk of being a victim.
