2022 Class Line-up

All classes offered are instructed by Dayton Police Community Engagement Officers and their associates.

Free informative classes offered to the community:

Surviving an Active Shooter Incident

This class is a must for anyone wanting to learn and practice what actions to take to increase their chance of not becoming a victim of an active shooter.

Interaction with Police

In this class, we will explore the dangers of the "routine" police traffic stop that exist for a police officer, as well as the public. We will discuss what rights that a citizen has when involved in a traffic stop or police inquiry.

Frauds and Scams Against Seniors

Seniors can make easy targets for fraud for many reasons. In this class we discuss the current scams directed towards the senior population and actions to take if you or someone you know has become a victim.

Personal Safety Awareness

It has never been a more important time to learn to take control of your personal safety. This class is designed to help women of every age avoid and deal with difficult and potentially dangerous situations.

Kid Safe

Your child's well-being and safety are extremely important to you, particularly when they are under your care- at home, in the car and elsewhere. This class will help you take every step possible to ensure that they are safe in most situations.

A Firearm in the Home

As a firearms owner, we are responsible for knowing how to properly handle and secure firearms in a safe manner. This class will help underscore the responsibilities each of us must accept when we bring firearms into our homes.

Classes Promoting Workplace Safety

- Workplace Violence
- Delivery Safe
- Realtor Safe
- Bank Teller Safe

All classes are FREE to the community for groups of 10 or more attendees.

- Religious groups / Churches
- Businesses
- Clubs and civic groups
- Neighborhood Associations

All classes shown are held at YOUR location and are usually held evenings and weekends for your convenience.

Due to subject matter, attendees must be at least 16 years of age to attend.
