Dayton International Airport is increasing parking rates for two on-airport parking options. The garage and long-term lot increase by $2 per day starting July 17, 2023.

The new rates are as follows:

- Garage: Increases from $20 per day to $22 per day
- Long-Term Lot: Increases from $10 per day to $12 per day

“With prices increasing everywhere from the grocery store to the services we use every day, we’ve been fortunate to be able to maintain our parking rates for as many years as we have,” explains Director of Aviation Gil Turner. “We are making these changes to maintain the high level of value our passengers expect from us.”

The garage features reservable parking on the covered second floor. Passengers may reserve a garage spot at DaytonAirport.ClickandPark.com.

The long-term lot is located a short walk from the terminal entrance. Passengers wishing to park in this lot may pay using cash or a credit card.

Dayton International Airport offers a loyalty program called DAYperks that allows members parking on-airport to earn points for each dollar spent on parking. Points are redeemable for free parking. Membership is free. Visit FlyDayton.com/DAYperks for more information or to sign up.
