Enjoy a pumpkin patch, kids' activities, food trucks, music by a local DJ, and Halloween entertainment at the Fall Harvest Festival, presented by the City of Dayton Department of Recreation.

Wear the costume of your choice and bring a trick-or-treat bag to Kettering Field (444 N. Bend Blvd.) on Saturday, Oct. 28, from 2 to 6 p.m. Admission and parking are free.

Additional fun includes frozen apple cider, bounce houses, yard games, a balloon artist, a magician, and lots of candy.

A costume contest for participants up to age 17 will award winners in four categories: Coolest Character, Most Creative, Silliest, and Best Baby (0-3 years old). Contest registration begins at 4 p.m.; judging gets underway at 4:30 p.m.
