Travel to Washington, D.C., from Dayton is even easier with United Airlines' addition of two new nonstop flights to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD).

The additional service from Dayton builds on the introduction of nonstop service to Denver International Airport (DEN) in September 2023. United now offers one daily flight between Dayton and Denver, four daily flights to Chicago O'Hare International Airport (ORD), and three daily flights to Washington Dulles (IAD).

"We're pleased United Airlines has continued to invest in the Dayton region by expanding their air service with us," said City of Dayton Director of Aviation Gil Turner.

"We've seen a strong response from the Miami Valley after we introduced nonstop service to Denver and are excited to provide this new service to the nation's capital thanks to our collaborative partners at the Dayton International Airport and the greater community," said Mark Weithofer, United's managing director of domestic network planning. "We look forward to connecting the region to our industry-leading network via Washington Dulles."

The flight numbers and daily flight times:

UA 4326 – 6:00 AM DAY Departure | 7:30 AM Arrival at IAD

UA 4258 – 10:25 AM DAY Departure | 11:54 AM Arrival at IAD

UA 4250 - 2:50 PM DAY Departure | 4:23 PM Arrival at IAD.
