Release date: Friday, June 28, 2024

Contact: Kyle Gebhart, Recreation Coordinator, Dept. of Recreation, 937-333-1751, kyle.gebhart@daytonohio.gov

Lights in Flight, the Dayton region's most spectacular fireworks display, returns Wednesday, July 3, at 10 p.m. The show takes place at Kettering Field, north of downtown in the McCook Field neighborhood, and is presented by the City of Dayton Department of Recreation.

A viewing area will be available at the northern and eastern sections of Kettering Field (near East Helena Street). Signs will mark the viewing area. Bring chairs or blankets for seating. (There will not be a festival before the fireworks display--no food trucks or vendors.)

Parking in the area will be limited; it is suggested visitors arrive early.

The following streets will be closed to vehicle traffic beginning at 6 p.m.:

- Riverside Drive from White Allen Avenue to East Helena Street - pedestrians only (no pedestrian access from I-75 to Hershey Street)
- East Helena Street from Riverside Drive to Keowee Street - pedestrians only
- Brennan Drive from East Helena Street to Keowee Street - pedestrians only
- North Bend Boulevard. from East Helena Street to Webster Street (including Deeds Park Drive) - Closed to vehicles & pedestrians at 3 p.m.
- Hall Ave. south of N. Keowee.

Recreation trails in nearby parks and along river corridors will be closed to users by 3 p.m. The Great Miami River will be closed to boaters and paddlers in nearby areas.

A map of the Kettering Field area is available at daytonohio.gov/lightsinflight.
