According to statistics, 18,456 individuals lost their lives due to homicide in 2023. In investigating those deaths, homicide detectives fulfill some of the most critical roles in law enforcement. Tasked with determining the circumstances that lead to loss of life, these detectives become experts in human behavior. Homicide detectives attempt to solve the worst crimes with crime scene evidence, logic, and reasoning.

In this class you will learn about this interesting unit and how it works individually, and together, to solve some of the cities' most difficult cases.
