"Block by Block," the City of Dayton Neighborhood Conference for 2025, is an opportunity for area residents to learn and share ideas and experience about making neighborhoods stronger, safer, and more beautiful.

The conference happens at Westwood Elementary School (2805 Oakridge Dr., Dayton) on Saturday, April 5, from 8 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Admission is free; breakfast and lunch are provided.

Workshops/break-out sessions include:

- Grant/Proposal Writing 101
- Housing in Dayton: Affordability and Availability
- Know Your Resources: Reporting, Tracking, and Transparency Tools for Residents
- Engaging Your Neighbors
- Small Business Certification: Working with the City of Dayton
- Power Savings: Energy Programs to Lower Your Bills
- Neighborhood Safety

In addition to workshops and networking opportunities, a collaborative art project and resource fair will add fun and learning for participants.

Victory Project Founder/CEO Monnie Bush is the keynote speaker, highlighting how the organization has made a difference in the lives of Dayton youth and in city neighborhoods.

Block by Block is presented by the City of Dayton Dept. of Planning, Neighborhoods & Development, Division of Community Engagement.

The 2024 conference was canceled because of weather/power outages. Don't miss this one!
