

Nominations sought for 2018 Mayor's Award in five categories

Release Date: Thursday, July 5, 2018

Contact: Torey Hollingsworth, Office of the Mayor, 937-333-3590

Nominations are being sought for the 2018 Mayor's Award, created by Mayor Nan Whaley in recognition of outstanding civic contribution and achievement.

The awards will recognize honorees in five areas:

- Daytonian of the Year - An individual making the greatest contribution to Dayton in the previous year.
- Community Service - An organization that supports and promotes service to the community.
- Giving Back to Neighborhoods - An individual or neighborhood group that has supported and inspired their neighborhood.
- Education Champion - An organization working hard to provide a brighter future for our children.
- Workforce Pipeline - An organization promoting skill or trade development in students.

Nominations may be submitted at daytonohio.gov/mayorsaward by August 3. Nominees must be located within the Dayton city limits.

Winners will be chosen by an awards committee, and awards will be presented at a City Commission meeting. The honorees will also be highlighted in special video productions and on the City's social media channels.

#

