

Nominations accepted for Joseph T. Cline Award

Release Date: Tuesday, Oct. 2, 2018

Contact: Angela Coleman, Office of the City Manager, 937-333-3611

Nominations are now being accepted for the Joseph T. Cline Award honoring City of Dayton employees for excellence in public service.

The award recognizes City of Dayton employees who display extraordinary excellence and dedication in their work. Other civic and community involvement may also be considered. Award winners receive $300 from an endowment established by the Cline family through The Dayton Foundation.

To be eligible, nominees must be a current full-time or permanent part-time employee, with a minimum of two years of City of Dayton employment. Winners will be selected by a team of judges representing The Dayton Foundation and the City of Dayton.

More information and nomination forms are available at daytonohio.gov/clineaward. Forms are also available at Dayton City Hall (101 W. Third St., Office of the City Manager, second floor). Completed forms may also be emailed to cityhall@daytonohio.gov or mailed to: Office of Public Affairs/City of Dayton/101 W. Third St./Dayton OH 45402.

Nominations forms must be received by 5 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 22.

The Joseph T. Cline Awards Fund was established in 1984 at The Dayton Foundation byCarolynne H. Cline, daughter of the late Joseph T. Cline, a civic activist and longtime supporter of the City of Dayton.

The Dayton Foundation is the regional community foundation for greater Dayton. Since 1921, the Foundation has helped people to help others, managing charitable funds that have provided grants totaling more than a half-billion dollars to non-profit organizations. More information about The Dayton Foundation is available at daytonfoundation.org.

#

