Nominations are now being accepted for the Joseph T. Cline Award honoring City of Dayton employees for excellence in public service. Nominations must be received by 5 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 22.

The award, named in honor of civic volunteer Joseph T. Cline, recognizes City of Dayton employees who display extraordinary dedication in their work. Other civic and community involvement may also be considered. Award winners receive $300 from an endowment established by the Cline family through The Dayton Foundation.

To be eligible, nominees must be a current full-time or permanent part-time employee, with a minimum of two years of City of Dayton employment. Winners will be selected by a team of judges representing The Dayton Foundation and the City of Dayton.

More information and nomination forms are available at daytonohio.gov/clineaward. Forms are also available at Dayton City Hall (101 W. Third St., Office of the City Manager, second floor). Completed forms may also be emailed to cityhall@daytonohio.gov or mailed to: Office of Public Affairs/City of Dayton/101 W. Third St./Dayton OH 45402.
