Nominations are now being accepted for the Steve Whalen Memorial Policing Award. The annual award recognizes a Dayton Police Department officer demonstrating extraordinary commitment and service to the community.

Officer Steve Whalen was killed in the line of duty in March of 1991. He was known as a community-oriented public servant who made himself accessible to the public above and beyond his normal police duties. The Steve Whalen Memorial Policing Award was established in 1993 to recognize a current Dayton police officer who embodies a similar outstanding commitment to the community.

You can nominate an officer at daytonohio.gov/whalenaward. Nominations must be submitted by April 17, 2019.

The Steve Whalen Memorial Policing Award will be presented at the annual Dayton Police Awards Ceremony on May 9 at 1 p.m. at the Salvation Army Ray and Joan Kroc Center, 1000 N. Keowee St. The community is welcome to attend.
