

Video message by Mayor Whaley on Dayton values

- Asks residents to celebrate diversity while avoiding downtown May 25 -

Release Date: Tuesday, May 21, 2019

Contact: Toni Bankston, Public Affairs, 937-333-3616

Mayor Nan Whaley has recorded a special video message in advance of the HSK rally in Dayton.

Mayor Whaley emphasizes Dayton as a community of inclusion and diversity and asks area residents to celebrate those values while avoiding downtown during the rally, planned for the afternoon of Saturday, May 25.

The video message and special information related to preparation for the HSK rally can be found at daytonohio.gov/may25.

Whaley:
Dayton embraces diversity and inclusion

