The City of Dayton offers the following information to the community regarding the planned HSK rally and other May 25 activities.

As a reminder, while the Dayton Police Department and public safety partners have made extensive preparations, City leaders are urging the community to avoid the downtown area Saturday afternoon.

A calendar of alternative community events and answers to frequently asked questions are available at www.daytonohio.gov/may25.

Streets surrounding Courthouse Square and RiverScape MetroPark will be closed May 24 and May 25, reopening in stages beginning May 26. For a complete listing of street closures, go www.daytonohio.gov/may25.

The RTA bus hub will be temporarily relocated to near the main Dayton Metro Library on Third Street between St. Clair and Patterson. For additional public transit information including temporary route changes, go to i-rideta.org or call 425-8300.

Area residents and visitors planning to attend the May 25 Community Celebration at McIntosh Park (1 p.m. to 3 p.m.) may find limited parking at the City of Dayton Cultural Center (40 S. Edwin C. Moses Blvd.). Event attendees are asked to be prepared for possible heavy traffic and to adhere to parking regulations.

Anyone attending the Community Celebration at McIntosh Park or other alternative events are welcome to submit photos for possible use on the City's Facebook page to cityhall@daytonohio.gov.
