Runway Fest: Flight and fun at Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport

- Friday, Aug. 9, free admission -

Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport presents an evening of flight and fun as Runway Fest returns on Friday, Aug. 9, from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m., with free admission.

Runway Fest is an event the entire family can enjoy, with airplane displays and rides, food trucks, music by The Deron Bell Band, inflatables, face-painting and more. Festivities end with a dazzling show by Rozzi Fireworks at 9:30 p.m.

"Runway Fest is our way to show the surrounding communities what goes on behind the fence at Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport," said Gil Turner, City of Dayton interim director of aviation. "Local residents and visitors gather from across the region to celebrate aviation and enjoy this great community event."

Parking is available at 11160 N. Springboro Pk. For safety reasons, guests are asked to park at the designated area in order to avoid crossing a very busy intersection. Lawn chairs and blankets are welcome; no pets, coolers, alcoholic beverages, or outside food/beverages, please.

Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport is a general aviation airport owned and operated by the City of Dayton.
