Restaurant concept being explored at Dayton International Airport

Release date: Saturday, Nov. 16, 2019

Contact: Business Development, 937.454.8200

Beginning Monday morning, airport travelers may notice a change in the food offerings. The Dayton International Airport has loved having Chick-fil-A as an offering to its passengers and employees for the past 6 years, and Chick-fil-A has loved serving them. The airport's master concessionaire is working through contract changes as the lease for this popular fast-food restaurant has expired.

All options are currently being explored for this space, and we hope to provide exciting news soon with an announcement of what that concept will be.
