

37th Neighborhood Leadership Institute accepting applications

Release date: Wednesday, Dec. 11, 2019

Contact: Verletta Jackson, Planning and Community Development, 937-333-3288

Applications are now being accepted for the 37th annual Neighborhood Leadership Institute, presented by the City of Dayton. The Neighborhood Leadership Institute is a 14-week program designed to educate Dayton residents about community leadership and local government. The application deadline is Friday, Feb. 7, 2020.

The 2020 institute will begin on March 26. It is comprised of workshops, skill-building components and a day-long tour of Dayton neighborhoods. Participants hear presentations from community, business and government leaders on topics such as Dayton's history, the role of City government, the criminal justice system, and cultural diversity. Class members also complete field assignments and a practicum requiring development of a grassroots project within their community.

Applications are available at City Hall (Department of Planning and Community Development, sixth floor) or at daytonohio.gov/nli. For more information, call 937-333-3288.

###

FOLLOW US

Visit the City of Dayton newsroom