

Chris Wimsatt named Finance and Administration Manager, Dept. of Aviation

Release date: Friday, Dec.27, 2019

City Manager Shelley Dickstein has announced the promotion of Chris Wimsatt to the position of manager of the Division of Finance and Administration in the Department of Aviation, effective Dec. 30, 2019.

Wimsatt will prepare and administer the operating and capital budgets and financial reporting for Dayton International Airport. His duties will include administration of airline rates/charges and management of business activities of the Department of Aviation, working closely with other City of Dayton departments, government agencies and the private sector.

Wimsatt joined the City of Dayton in 2016 and is currently a management analyst in the Department of Procurement, Management and Budget. Previously, he worked in banking and securities and as a legislative aide in the Ohio Senate. He earned a Bachelor of Arts (Political Science) at Ohio University and an MBA at Western Governors University.

"Chris Wimsatt's financial and analytical skills will continue to serve the City of Dayton well in the Department of Aviation," Dickstein said. "We look forward to his contributions to the success of Dayton International Airport."
