The Dayton Fire Dept. will promote three public safety professionals at a ceremony to be held Monday, Jan.13, at 10:30 a.m. The event takes place at City Hall, 101 W. Third St, second floor (Commission Chambers), and the community is welcome to attend.

Firefighter Jeremy Carnes is being promoted to the rank of Lieutenant. He joined Dayton Fire in 2001 as a firefighter's apprentice. After working as a firefighter/EMT with the Miami Township Fire Dept. beginning in 2002, he returned to Dayton Fire as a member of recruit class of 2007, where he was the honor graduate. He was certified as a paramedic in 2010 and served as the department's recruitment officer. In 2019, he was chosen to lead the Dayton Public Schools Fire and EMS CTE program.

EMT Hillary Faust is being promoted to the rank of Paramedic. She joined Dayton Fire in 2018 as an EMT, after graduating from Butler Tech. She was previously employed by AMR as an EMT.

EMT Kayla Rike is also being promoted to the rank of Paramedic. A Dayton native, Rike's father and brother serve in the Dayton Police and Fire Departments, respectively. She received a paramedic certification from Sinclair Community College in 2019.
