

City Commission to meet Wednesday, April 22

Release date: Monday, April 20, 2020

Contact: Ariel Walker, Director, Office of the City Commission, 937-333-3636

The Dayton City Commission will hold a meeting on Wednesday, April 22, beginning at 8:30 a.m. The meeting will be held remotely and will be available for citizens to watch live at daytonohio.gov/govtv. The public comment period is suspended for virtual meetings.

This meeting is being held in accordance with changes to both state and local laws regarding public meetings during a state of emergency. In response to COVID-19 and in the interest of public health and welfare, Governor DeWine signed an emergency declaration on March 9, 2020, and the City of Dayton followed with an emergency proclamation on March 12, 2020. Additionally, the City of Dayton passed Emergency Ordinance 31797-20 on March 18, 2020, permitting City Commissioners to attend Commission meetings and public attendance via electronic means. And finally, on March 25, 2020, the Ohio legislature passed Amended Sub House Bill 197, which in Section 12(B) allows for public meetings and hearings to be conducted by electronic means.
