Contact: Cara Zinski-Neace, Police Information Specialist, 937-333-1201

Dayton Police Department homicide detectives and patrol officers are actively searching for the person who stabbed a 7-year-old child. The incident happened today at 1:30 p.m. outside the World of Wonder School at 4411 Oakridge Dr.

Witnesses told officers that kids were on the playground when they were approached by a man who stabbed one of the children and then fled on foot toward Kammer Avenue. The subject is described as:

- Black male with a light complexion
- 5'8"-5'10", medium build
- 18-20 years old
- Short hair
- Blue or beige gym shorts
- Tan or green hooded sweatshirt
- Orange undershirt.

Officers responding to the scene canvassed the neighborhood, made contact with local businesses, and attempted a track with a K9. Additional officers were also utilized when school was dismissed this afternoon. The victim is being treated for serious injuries.

If anyone has any information about this crime, please call Dayton Police at 333-COPS or Crime Stoppers at 222-STOP.
