Nominations are now being accepted for the Cline Award, honoring City of Dayton employees for excellence in public service.

The award, named in honor of civic volunteer Joseph T. Cline, recognizes employees who display extraordinary dedication in their work. Other civic and community involvement may also be considered. Honorees receive a cash award from an endowment established by the Cline family, through The Dayton Foundation.

To be eligible, a nominee must be a current full-time or permanent part-time employee, with a minimum of two years of City of Dayton employment.

Nominations must be received by 5 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 23, 2020. Honorees will be chosen by a selection committee made up of representatives of The Dayton Foundation, the City of Dayton administration and the Department of Planning and Community Development, as well as prior Cline Award winners.

Nomination forms are available at daytonohio.gov/clineaward and may be submitted online, emailed to cityhall@daytonohio.gov, or delivered/mailed to: Office of Public Affairs/City of Dayton/101 W. Third St./Dayton OH 45402.

The Dayton Foundation is the regional community foundation for greater Dayton. Since 1921, the Foundation has helped people to help others, managing charitable funds that have provided grants totaling over a half-billion dollars to non-profit organizations. More information about The Dayton Foundation is available at daytonfoundation.org.
