

Human Relations Council to recognize community members and organizations

Release date: Monday, Dec. 7, 2020

Contact: Erica Fields, Dayton Human Relations Council, 333-1403

The Dayton Human Relations Council will present the recipients of its annual awards virtually on Dec. 17 at 6 pm.

The awards honor the accomplishments of community members and organizations that promote diversity, equality and inclusion and work to build safe and secure neighborhoods for all who live, work, play and gather in the Dayton community.

The awards recognize excellence in three areas: Business Diversity and Inclusion, Community Impact, and Social Justice. The honorees are:

Business Diversity and Inclusion

Kenneth Block, A to Z Maintenance

Kristen Dilbone Goodwine & Jeremy Hensch, L.J. DeWeese Company

Community Impact

Melissa Bertolo, Welcoming America

Donald Domineck, New Black Panther Party

Social Justice

Daj'za Demmings, Dayton Young Black Professionals

Shannon Isom, YWCA

The virtual presentation can be viewed at daytonhrc.org or facebook.com/hrccdayton. You are invited to join in from the comfort of your couch. For more information, contact Cyneca Reed at 937-333-1400.

Established in 1962 by the Dayton City Commission, the Dayton Human Relations Council works to influence and ensure a culture of fair treatment, inclusion, and equal access to opportunities for all who live, work, play, and gather in the city of Dayton. The Council provides civil rights enforcement; builds the capacity of minority-owned, woman-owned and small disadvantaged businesses; and administers community relations initiatives.
