

Fall Harvest: A trick-or-treat alternative, Sunday, Oct. 31

Release date: Wednesday, Oct. 20, 2021

Contact: Nick Terbay, Dept. of Recreation, 937-333-1751

Fall Harvest, a drive-thru alternative to traditional trick-or-treat, returns to 444 North Bend Blvd., just north of downtown Dayton on Sunday, Oct. 31, from 6 to 8 p.m.

Visitor vehicles will cruise along a haunted Halloween lane, with treats provided when children 12 years of age or younger are present (while supplies last). Vehicles may join the lineup from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Enter from Helena Street. Rainy weather will not cancel the event.

Fall Harvest is presented by the City of Dayton Dept. of Recreation.
