

HRC and Dayton Police to host next "Know Your Rights and Responsibilities" session

-Thursday, Dec. 9, 6:30 p.m.-

Release date: Wednesday, Dec. 1, 2021

Contact: Erica Fields, Dayton Human Relations Council, 937-333-1403

As a step in implementing Dayton's police reform recommendations, the Human Relations Council and Dayton Police Department will host the second "Know Your Rights and Responsibilities" session on Thursday, Dec. 9, 6:30 p.m., at the Dayton Metro Library Southeast Branch (21 Watervliet Ave.).

Carla Maragano of the Montgomery County Public Defender's Office will present information on the rights and responsibilities of residents when interacting with police. Space is limited, interested residents are encouraged to register at daytonohio.gov/knowyourrights.

Additional sessions will be held at various locations throughout Dayton over the coming year.

Established in 1962 by the Dayton City Commission, the Dayton Human Relations Council works to influence and ensure a culture of fair treatment, inclusion, and equal access to opportunities for all who live, work, play, and gather in the city of Dayton. The Council provides civil rights enforcement; builds the capacity of minority-owned, woman-owned and small disadvantaged businesses; and administers community relations initiatives.
