

Police & FOP #44 team up for annual Angel Tree

Release date: Monday, Dec. 13, 2021

Cara Zinski-Neace, Police Information Specialist, 937-333-1201

Dayton Police Department personnel are feeling the holiday spirit and will pass it on to the community through their annual Angel Tree.

Officers, squads, administrative personnel, family, and friends have been busy buying gifts for adopted families from this year's Angel Tree. The Dayton Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #44 also donates new coats for every child on the tree.

The Angel Tree has been an ongoing tradition since 2012. This year, 14 families, including 51 children, from across Dayton were adopted. The families were nominated by various community programs and patrol officers. The Angel Tree has become such a popular tradition within the department that all the families were spoken for in less than 12 hours! Also, this year an anonymous donor is providing a special gift for each family.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY: Sgt. Danielle Cash, the organizer of the Angel Tree program, will be available for interviews on Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 3:15pm at East Patrol Operations Division North (417 E. Helena St.).
