

City recreation programs canceled; cooling centers are open

Release date: Tuesday, June 14, 2022

As a result of very high temperatures, the Dayton Dept. of Recreation has canceled for the remainder of the day all sports leagues and activities held at Kettering Field, Centennial Football Field and Jim Nichols Tennis Complex.

Three Dayton recreation centers are serving as cooling centers during regular business hours (8 a.m. to 9 p.m.). The locations are:

Greater Dayton Recreation Center: 2021 W. Third St.
Northwest Recreation Center: 1600 Princeton Dr.
Lohrey Recreation Center: 2366 Glenarm Ave.
