

Masks required at July 20 City Commission meeting and work session

Release date: Tuesday, July 19, 2022

Contact: Torey Hollingsworth, Director, Office of the City Commission, 937-333-3590

Visitors at the July 20 Dayton City Commission meeting and work session will be required to wear protective masks or face coverings, as suggested by a July 15 recommendation by Public Health-Dayton & Montgomery County. Masks will be provided to visitors when needed.

The Commission will hold a meeting on Wednesday, July 20, beginning at 6 p.m., in the Commission Chambers (101 W. Third St., second floor). The meeting will include a public hearing.

A work session is scheduled for 4:30 p.m., in the Planning Resource Center (City Hall, mezzanine). The topic is the Procurement Enhancement Program.

Masks will continue to be required at Commission meetings until further notice. City of Dayton employees are currently required to wear protective masks in City facilities.
