The City of Dayton's "National Night Out" celebration tour is set for the evening of Tuesday, Aug. 2. City leaders, along with police and fire personnel, will visit four National Night Out events across Dayton.

National Night Out neighborhood celebrations allow residents, law enforcement, and local government leaders to interact in a positive environment, build community, and send a message that they are prepared to prevent crime in neighborhoods. The special night happens the first Tuesday in August and is celebrated across America, Canada, and in military installments worldwide.

The Dayton Police Department will lead a neighborhood caravan tour making stops at these National Night Out community events:

5:15 p.m. – Twin Towers – 600 Block of Xenia Ave.

5:50 p.m. – Old North Dayton – Stuart Patterson Park, 238 Baltimore St.

6:30 p.m. – Residence Park – West Second & Elmhurst Rd.

7:10 p.m. – Westwood – Westwood Elementary, 2805 Oakridge Dr.
