Lights in Flight, the region's most spectacular fireworks show, returns to the downtown Dayton riverfront on Sunday, July 3, at 10 p.m.

The fireworks will follow a family-friendly, multi-cultural festival featuring live music, food and beverages, and special attractions, beginning at 1 p.m. at RiverScape MetroPark on East Monument Avenue. Admission is free; charges apply to food and beverages and selected activities and products.

The events celebrate Independence Day and are presented by the City of Dayton Department of Recreation and Youth Services. The Lights in Flight fireworks show is sponsored by Marion's Piazza and produced by Rozzi Fireworks.

The festival features 18 food and beverage vendors, including some of the region's favorites. Beers poured include selections from Goose Island, Yuengling, Breckenridge and Budweiser. Beer ticket sales end at 9:30 p.m.

Activities include an obstacle course, a climbing wall, a kids' zone and more.

The music line-up includes Dayton's Burundian Drummers, Edde Osborne, Phonic Uproar, DFunk, Alexis Gomez, Son Del Caribe and Carmichael Musiclover.

Hot 102.9 FM will broadcast fireworks-synchronized music starting at 10 p.m., through a special arrangement with Alpha Media Dayton.
