For the fifth year in a row, the Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport invites the community to its annual Runway Fest on Friday, August 12 from 6 to 10 p.m.

Runway Fest is an evening the whole family can enjoy, including multiple aircraft displays, hot air balloons, a bounce house and other inflatables, face-painting and a live performance by Ashley Martin. A fireworks display will end the evening with a bang at 9:30 p.m.

"It just wouldn't be summer at the Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport without Runway Fest," said Terry Slaybaugh, Director of Aviation for the City of Dayton. "People throughout the Dayton region come out in abundance to enjoy and support this annual event."

Visitors can bring lawn chairs or blankets. No firearms or weapons are permitted on airport property. No coolers, pets, alcoholic beverages or outside food or beverages are allowed. Parking is available at 11160 N. Springboro Pike. For safety reasons, we suggest that guests do not attempt to park off-site and walk across the extremely busy intersection.

Dayton-Wright Brothers Airport is a general aviation airport owned and operated by the City of Dayton. The City of Dayton Department of Aviation, Miami Township, Commander Aero and ASI are working together to organize the event.

Sponsors include: Dayton International Airport, Connor Group, Industrial Design, Inc., Aviation Sales, Inc., Ulliman Schutte Construction, Williams Aviation Group, Environmental Doctor, Kelchner, Greater Dayton RTA, Watkins, Enterprise, Dayton Children's Hospital, and Nova Creative.
