

Residents invited to crime prevention event

Saturday, September 10; free admission

Release Date: Friday, September 2, 2016

Contact: Cara Zinski-Neace, Police Information Specialist, 937-333-1201

Dayton-area residents are invited to the sixth annual MVCPOP crime prevention conference on Saturday, September 10, from 8:30 a.m. to noon at the Kroc Center (1000 N. Keowee St.). Admission is free.

The event features activities and education for adults and youth and includes information on emerging crime trends.

The Dayton Police Department is again teaming up with the Miami Valley Crime Prevention Association to present this important community event.

Adult programs presented by Miami Valley Crime Stoppers will include avoiding current scams and monitoring kids' internet activity. ABC22/FOX45 Chief Meteorologist Jamie Simpson will present a session on emergency weather preparedness.

Young participants (ages 6 to 14) will experience one-on-one time with police officers, enjoy a K9 demonstration and SWAT obstacle course, and experience a crime scene investigation demonstration.

For more information, go to mvcpop.com.

#

