

Police Department Celebrates Community Policing Week & National Coffee With a Cop Day

Release Date: Wednesday, October 5, 2016

Contact: Cara Zinski-Neace, Police Information Specialist, 937-333-1201

The Dayton Police Department is excited to celebrate National Community Policing Week and National Coffee With a Cop Day with several events.

Throughout the day on Thursday, October 6, Major Wendy Stiver, Commander of Central Patrol Operations Division, and other CPOD officers will be out for the first Walk With a Cop event. The fun will start at 9 a.m. at Boston Stoker and continue to various locations around downtown and the Oregon District:

- 9 a.m. - Boston Stoker, 34 W. Second St
- 10 a.m. - Third Perk, 46 W. Fifth St.
- 11 a.m. - CareSource, 230 N. Main St.
- 3 p.m. - Newcom Park, Oregon District
- 4 p.m. - Oregon District Arch, E. Fifth St. & Pine St.

Officers are hoping to meet with citizens and members of the business community to engage in conversation, answer questions, and listen to ideas.

On Friday, October 7, CPOD and East Patrol Operations Division officers will celebrate National Coffee With a Cop day with events:

From 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., CPOD officers will be inside the Wright Stop Plaza on South Main Street and available to talk with citizens, especially those who utilize Greater Dayton RTA services.

From 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., Chief Richard Biehl and Major Brian Johns, along with EPOD officers, will be at Evans Bakery on Troy Street for Doughnut With a Cop, a sweet twist on the popular Coffee With a Cop series. The concept of the event though remains the same, a chance to speak one-on-one with officers in a relaxed environment.

There will be media availability with Major Wendy Stiver during the morning Walk With a Cop stops on Thursday, October 6. She can also preview the Coffee With a Cop event.

There will also be media availability with Major Brian Johns Thursday, October 6, at Evans Bakery (700 Troy St.) at 10 a.m. to preview the Doughnut with a Cop event.

#

