The Dayton Mediation Center will give recognition to 111 volunteer citizen mediators at a dinner to take place on Thursday, November 3, from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the Fraternal Order of the Police Lodge, 4275 Powell Rd.

In 2016, volunteers will contribute 7,200 hours to mediate approximately 1,200 cases involving over 4,800 citizens. The volunteer-led mediations have an estimated value of $540,000 and provide comparable savings to the community in lieu of other services.

The Dayton Mediation Center, through its citizen mediators, has been turning conflict into conversation since 1987.
