Area residents are invited to provide comments and questions about the future Levitt Pavilion to be located at Dave Hall Plaza in downtown Dayton.

A public input meeting is scheduled for Monday, November 14, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., at the Crowne Plaza Dayton, 33 E. Fifth St. (Orville & Wilbur Wright Rooms, top floor).

The meeting is an excellent opportunity to provide suggestions for the design of the outdoor music venue. City staff will be available to answer questions about the development process.

Levitt Pavilions build community through music, and Dayton has been selected as the ninth city to host such a site. Fifty free performances will occur at the pavilion yearly.

Questions and comments may also be submitted to ruth.bickel@daytonohio.gov.
